

Job Description

Job Title: Teardown Mechanic
Company: Willis Lease Finance Corporation
Location: Coconut Creek, FL
Department: Engine Repair Station

Summary:

To perform teardown maintenance covering the disassembly of aircraft engines from Willis Lease and Third-Party Customers coming through the teardown shop. Performs a variety of tasks within a team environment and is self-motivated, driven by results, achievement, and in meeting goals.

Responsibilities:

- Perform maintenance which includes QEC removal and engine disassembly on engines owned by Willis Lease and Third-Party Customers.
- Uses maintenance manuals and specifications to determine correct removal procedures.
- Identify parts using applicable manual references.
- Tag removed parts and packaging to prevent damage.

Qualifications / Requirements:

- Must have High School Diploma or equivalent experience.
- Careful workmanship and attention to detail in performing duties.
- Ability to work under stressful conditions because of the degree of responsibility required.
- Ability to read, understand and follow manual instructions in English.
- Ability to lift or pull objects weighing as much as 70 pounds frequently.
- Agility to stand, lie, or kneel in awkward positions and to perform work from scaffolds or ladders.
- Manual dexterity is required to operate tools to adjust and do repairs.
- Sufficient visual acuity to inspect equipment for defects.
- Ability to work at times in small, confined spaces.

Travel/Misc.:

- Light.